Digital Government Committee

EdTech Cambodia 2025,
on 17-18 February 2025 at the Institute of Technology of Cambodia (ITC)

List of potential questions categorized by audience type:

General Questions (For All Visitors)

- What does DGC do?
- What are the main responsibilities of DGC in Cambodia's digital transformation?
- Can you give a brief explanation of each product?
- How can the public use these platforms?
- Are there any upcoming projects related to digital government?
- What new features will be added to existing platforms?
- What challenges does DGC face in expanding digital services?
- How do these platforms improve efficiency and transparency?
- How do they make government services more convenient for citizens?
- Do I need to pay for services on Verify.gov.kh, Nomsa, Go.gov.kh, etc.?
- Can businesses or universities use them for free?
- Can I access these services on my phone?
- Do I need to download any special software?
- Can users access them in Khmer and English?
- Will there be support for other languages in the future?
- Is Cambodia leading in digital transformation?

Students

- Can students use FormKH to submit applications to universities or government offices?
- Are there any educational uses for Verify.gov.kh or Sarika?
- Are there any government job or internship portals linked to these platforms?
- Can private companies use them to verify student qualifications?
- Are there any free training sessions for university students?
- How can students learn more about digital transformation?
- How can students work in digital government roles?
- What skills do they need to join DGC in the future?

Professors & Researchers / Private Company Employee

- Can universities use these platforms for research or educational purposes?
- Are there any partnership opportunities for academic institutions?
- Can Sarika help students with disabilities, like those who are visually impaired?
- Can it be used in classrooms or online learning?
- How often is the data updated?
- Can universities access historical records or research materials?
- Does DGC provide resources or training for teachers to understand these platforms?
- How can professors include these tools in their curriculum?
- Can companies verify degrees, certificates, or government-issued business licenses?
- How reliable is the verification process?
- Can businesses use it to collect customer data or feedback?
- How does FormKH compare to commercial form services like Google Forms?
- Are there collaboration opportunities for private companies?
- Can businesses contribute to digital government innovation?
- Are there specific industries (like banking, healthcare, or education) that benefit from Verify.gov.kh, Nomsa, or Go.gov.kh?
- Have any private companies already adopted these tools?

Technical & Security (Tech-Savvy Visitors)

- How do you protect personal data?
- Has there been any cyberattack on these platforms?
- Are they built using blockchain, AI, or cloud computing?
- How do they compare to similar platforms in other countries?
- Is there an API available for businesses or universities?
- What are the requirements to use these services in third-party applications?
- Can someone challenge a document's authenticity?
- What legal actions are taken against fraud?